

ABOUT THE ROLE

The Commercial Insurance Sales Executive isn't a normal insurance job. Let's face it. There are a lot of stereotypes about a career in insurance (especially that junk about 100% commission jobs). That's not Arrowhead! We are a fast paced, exciting, 'change agent' culture where you can build a client portfolio AND recurring income opportunities that will last a lifetime! The Commercial Insurance Sales Executive job opening is with Arrowhead Automotive Aftermarket, a wholly owned subsidiary of Brown & Brown.

A snapshot of the Commercial Insurance Sales Executive job:

1. Immediate opening based on market expansion in the five boroughs of NYC and Long Island area.
2. Every opening has an existing client base. You don't have to start from scratch. Current accounts get your feet wet in a new role to leverage relationships for cross selling and lead generation.
3. We love cars and everything about the automotive industry. If that's your passion, then we need to talk. You'll love working with our target client.
4. $100k-$150k total first year comp (includes competitive base salary + commissions)
5. Insurance experience IS NOT required. We will teach, train & license you to pivot into the insurance industry.
